METHODIST CONFERENCE

Bishop Kilgo Scores Certain Theological Students—The Britt Heresy Charge.

Wilmore, Ky., Sept. 5.—The Rev. R. M. Britt, whose case was to have been decided by the Kentucky Methodist Conference today, withdrew his application for an appointment this year and the charges of heresy against him were filed away.

A sensation was sprung when the committee appointed to examine into the charges against the Rev. R. M. Britt, of Burnside, who has been accused of writing and publishing a false doctrine recently in one of the leading organs of the Southern Methodist Church. He taught, it is alleged, the annihilation of the wicked. That in effect the charge is practically the same as "Russellism," which it is averred is absolutely opposite to the teaching and discipline of the Methodist Church.

The new Methodist university at Atlanta, Ga., was under discussion to day by the Conference. In combating the movement Bishop John C. Kilgo said: "I would just as soon raise mosquitoes as such theological scholars, because I would rather have that which gives physical malaria than to breed that which gives moral malaria."

MRS. BUCKNER WALLINGFORD, JR., IN THE WAR ZONE.

A cablegram was received in Cincinnati Friday from Ambassador Herriek, at Paris, stating that he has definite information from Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Sr., who is at St. Mihiel, 10 miles from the firing line. Mrs. Longworth is within sound of the great battle that is now raging between the Germans and the allies, but states that she is not disturbed by the distant roaring of the artillery or the almost continuous marching of the troops through the village. Mrs. Longworth is with her daughters, Mrs. Buckner Wallingford, of Cincinnati, and the Countess of Chamberlain. They are stopping at the home of the latter, whose husband is with the French army. The dispatch states that Ambassador Herriek is now on his way to Normandy.

LABOR DAY

Is Being Celebrated in Maysville Today at Beechwood by the Carpenters' Union.

Maysville is still on the map. For some time past the talk of celebrating Labor Day here has been up before Local No. 922, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, and at its meeting last Friday night it was decided to make the day a memorable one here by giving the labor union people and their families and friends a celebration at Beechwood Park that would give all an opportunity to "get together" and see and hear what the labor unions really meant to its adherents and what they stood for as to the welfare of the public at large.

Accordingly, and in order that the occasion will be one that can be attended by all the entire day, a very interesting and appetizing program has been arranged—not one for the outer man alone, but the inner man has also been accorded a place—in fact, the main place on the program.

After the people have gotten to the park—and you no doubt went early—at 9 o'clock a big fish fry was had, at which enough fish were placed before the people to feed the German army; and this start of the day's festivities was a huge success; but the next thing on the program is one calculated to make it necessary to call out the police to keep out the crowd—a regular old-time fried chicken dinner at 12 o'clock, and the next thing, one of those splendid addresses that Rev. H. B. Wilhoite, of the First Baptist Church is capable of giving; and at 3 o'clock all the ice cream you want will be served; and to wind up the day's festivities the last bite is to be the best—an old-fashioned bean lake at 6 o'clock.

And don't forget that this is Labor Day and that the good things you will enjoy are given you by the laboring people of Maysville.

Go out and enjoy yourself to the fullest.

W. C. T. U. NOTICE.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold an open meeting at the First Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30 in the lecture room. All who are interested in Mason County going dry are invited to attend. This will also be the election of officers for the coming year. It is a request of the President that every member be present at this meeting.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

The Big Combat is on Near Paris.

The allied armies defending the roads to Paris have come again into contact with the German right wing on the River Grand Morin, which runs east and west, somewhat south of the Paris line.

German and Austrian Consular Officers Are Ordered by British Authorities to Leave Egypt.

Washington, Sept. 6.—German and Austrian consular officers have been ordered by British authorities to leave Egypt at once. Rumor has an unconfirmed official that if she abandons her position of neutrality it will be to follow the course taken by Italy.

Neutral Diplomats Urge Protection of Works of Art and Buildings in Case of Bombardment of Paris.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Neutral diplomats have asked Ambassador Herriek at Paris to sound the United States on the question of making joint representations to Germany to protect certain buildings and works of art in the attack on Paris.

Belgians Flood Town.

London, Sept. 5. (10:05 p. m.)—A dispatch from Antwerp to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the Germans, who occupied Termonde (Bendermonde) yesterday were flooded at today by the Belgians, who opened the dike. This action caused the town quickly to be covered with water and forced the Germans to precipitate retreat.

This is Why War is Hell.

Rome, Sept. 5.—More than 35,000 Austrian and Russian wounded were abandoned on the field of battle between Tarnow, Lemberg and Tarnopol owing to lack of means of transportation.

Loss of the Germans Has Been Placed at Two Hundred Thousand.

London, Sept. 5.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Gisors, a French town near Beauvais, estimates the total losses of the Germans at 200,000. He says a fifth of the Germans at 200,000. He says a moderate estimate of the German losses places them at 20 per cent. at least.

Americans arriving in Rotterdam today from Germany report that large German forces are going to the aid of the Austrians in Galicia. The Germans comprise infantry for the most part, because this arm of the Austrian service has not proved as efficient as had been expected.

Rotterdam, via London, Sept. 5.—Berlin makes official announcement that Dendermonde, in East Flanders, sixteen miles east of Ghent, was taken today, the Belgian garrison retreating to Antwerp.

Agreement Signed by the Allies is Regarded at Washington as Indicating Fight to Decisive End.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Officials and diplomats here regarded the agreement just signed by Great Britain, France and Russia not to make peace except by mutual consent as an indication that the war would be fought to a decisive end. On all sides the announcement was accepted here today as meaning the inevitable prolongation of the war. President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, who have been hoping for some indication through American diplomats abroad of readiness on the part of the powers to talk peace, were said to have been depressed by the news.

Diplomats of the allied powers interpreted the agreement as a resolution on the part of Great Britain and Russia to wage their warfare in every quarter, irrespective of reverses in France. From all parts of the globe colonial (Continued on fourth page.)

BEECHWOOD PARK

Is the Place of Meeting of Old Soldiers' Reunion September 30th.

The annual reunion of the survivors of the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry and Tenth Kentucky Cavalry will be held at Beechwood Park, Maysville, on Wednesday, September 30th.

Mrs. C. C. Degman, who succeeded her husband as Secretary of the organization, makes this announcement, and wishes the veterans to understand that lunch will be served at the park.

The exercises will consist of a prayer service, speeches and songs and a general good time for all.

An invitation is extended to all old soldiers to attend the meeting.

Remember, too, that this reunion is held every year at Maysville, on the last Wednesday in September.

SCHOOL BEGINS TOMORROW.

The 1914-15 term of the Maysville Public Schools will begin tomorrow, Tuesday, September 8th. Patrons and pupils will please take notice.

APOSTOLIC BENEDICTION

Cabled By Pope Benedict XV. To Clergy and Laity of U. S.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Monsignor Bonzano, the apostolic delegate, received a cable tonight from Rome, in which Pope Benedict XV. extended the apostolic benediction to the delegation, the clergy and the laity of the United States. The dispatch was in reply to a message sent to the Vatican by Monsignor Bonzano, which said:

"I pray Your Holiness to accept the respectful congratulations and homage of filial obedience and reverence, with the wish of long and happy pontificate, in the name of the delegation, the clergy and the faithful of the United States, who implore your apostolic benediction."

The cable reply is signed by Cardinal Ferrata, the newly selected Papal Secretary of State, and says:

"The Holy Father, Benedict XV., welcomes the homage and expression of filial piety sent by Your Excellency, in the name of the delegation, the clergy and the faithful of the United States. He heartily thanks and blesses them, and in particular, Your Excellency."

It is reported that this year's corn and tobacco crops are the best Mason county has had for years.

The Grand Army of the Republic will meet next year at Washington, D. C.

THE DREAM OF UNIVERSAL PEACE.

A committee of eminent men and women, representing six of the greatest peace societies in the United States, have laid before the Secretary of State two recommendations. First, that all nations signatory to the Hague convention not involved in the present war, and especially the neutral nations of Europe, unite with our Government in a joint offer of mediation. Second, that peace shall be made on a basis "that shall prevent hereafter the mistaken national policies and the hostile armaments which have caused the present war."

The United States Government has already tendered its good offices to the warring peoples. It is, however, entirely possible to invite other neutral nations to co-operate with us in this laudable endeavor. It is the second recommendation which offers the greatest difficulties. The omens of success are not promising. Some will say that the end of the terrible war will find Europe so exhausted, economically and physically, that the nations will be ripe for the permanent nesting of the dove. But unless past history has failed in its prophecies for the future, the terrible heritage of hate and the thirst for revenge which will follow the war will render futile those altruistic and noble efforts for lasting peace. The systems which control Europe are too deeply rooted readily to yield to radical changes. The day of universal peace will come. It may come sooner than we expect. But it will not follow the great war.—Times-Star.

THE 1916 ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

The number of electoral votes to which all the states contribute is 531. Therefore the next President of the United States must secure 266 of these to assure his election. The states in which women will cast a vote for the President are entitled to electoral votes as follows: Arizona, 3; California, 13; Colorado, 6; Idaho, 4; Illinois, 21; Kansas, 10; Oregon, 5; Utah, 4; Washington, 7; Wyoming, 3, making a total at present of 84 votes. In addition very active campaigns are being waged in Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nevada, and initiative petitions submitted in Missouri, Nebraska and Ohio. Should these states give women the ballot there would be added to the electoral vote Montana, 4; North Dakota, 5; South Dakota, 6; Nevada, 3; Missouri, 18; Nebraska, 8; Ohio, 24, constituting a grand total of 151 votes from full suffrage states. Future candidates will take this into their reckoning.

War is the concentration of all human crimes. Under its standard gather violence, malignity, rage, fraud, rapacity, and lust. If it only slew men, it would do little. But it turns man into a beast of prey. Here is the evil of war, that man, made to be the brother, becomes the deadly foe of his kind; that man, whose duty is to mitigate suffering, makes the infliction of suffering his study and end.—William Ellery Channing.

A very large number of Americans look with a sentiment close to horror at the spectacle of one civilized people calling upon an Asiatic nation to fight with it against another civilized people. It calls up memories of the forgotten days when the Indians were armed against white colonists and that recollection still makes Americans shudder.—Detroit Free Press.

THE ABSURDITY OF HIGH PRICES.

The greed which is such a grievous and growing evil this country, and which indeed gravely threatens the life of the republic if ways cannot be found of controlling it is exasperatingly revealed by the contrast in food prices here, with foreign war as their excuse, and those in the countries afflicted by this wicked war. A start was made by speculators and forestallers in London to jump up the price of domestic commodities from 20 to 50 per cent. The government intervened and created a committee of wholesale foodstuff dealers, who have since met weekly to regulate the prices of staple articles. Tradersmen are required to exhibit in their shops the weekly tariffs fixed by this commission, and as a result, an absolute end has been put to overcharging. Even restaurants which at first boosted prices have been forced to go back to their old rates. So it comes about that the only great country that is at peace, the only one that has plenty, not only for its own consumption, but to help feed the others, is the only one to suffer from stomachache. The absurdity of the thing is equalled only by its iniquity.—Worcester Post.

"MASON AND DIXON'S LINE"

President Wilson has expressed the wish that Mason and Dixon's line be forever forgotten. In the last half-century the States south of that line have emerged from poverty to a condition of prosperity that has put them in the forefront of progress in this nation. Great changes have taken place in both social and business interests. The South will soon lead the rest of the country in the manufacture of cotton goods and it has already attained a commanding position in the iron and steel industry. Now that United States Senators are to be elected by popular vote, the close connection between local and national politics which has hitherto prevailed, should be severed. When this is done, Mason and Dixon's line will be wiped out forever.—New York Commercial.

BUTTON SITUATION SERIOUS.

Many shipments of foreign buttons are being held up on the other side by the war, and stocks in this country are being depleted rapidly. This is proving to be a big button season, the principal demand being for jet, fancy glass and crystal effects, and Roman stripes in odd shapes and various sizes. The bulk of these buttons comes from Germany and Austria, though many of the novelty buttons are received from France. Most of the jet buttons come from Austria. Advances have been made on several lines here, but they are said not to be as large as warranted by the present condition of stocks.—New York Times.

If Italy does nothing she will get nothing. If she comes to the help of the allies—and they win—she can help in re-making the map of Europe in proportion to her contribution to the titanic struggle. If the allies lose, Italy would be dismembered and so would some other countries. But if they should win with her help she can have as much of Austria as she desires. The ministry is said to be for joining the allies, and the king is giving way.—Philadelphia Record.

GEORGE WASHINGTON NO. 2.

In the old days when there were schoolmasters in our public schools, instead of the neat young schoolmistresses, whom the magazine stories insist today control the rudimentary scholars by kindness—in those days, according to an old-timer, the schoolmaster had been disheveled and was very angry.

"Once again," said he, "my orders have been flagrantly violated. Who is the miscreant?"

Not a soul answered. A fragile silence prevailed.

"This matter shall be settled at once," the teacher declared finally. "If no one will tell every boy in the class shall be thrashed."

No one spoke up and one by one the lads were soundly caned. The last boy was about to receive his punishment, but suddenly the cane was withheld. Fixing a keen look on the lad, the master said:

"Now, if you will tell me who did this action I shall not punish you."

"All right, sir," came the unhesitating reply. "I did it."—Louisville Times.

MISS MARIE BAYLESS

Former Graduate of The Convent of the Visitation, to Teach in Atlanta.

(Georgetown, (L.) News-Dem.)
Miss Marie Bayless, who has been visiting her father, Hon. F. D. Bayless, who spends his summer at the Mineral Springs, in Adams county, will probably accept a position as special instructor in Alaska or Panama this winter. During the past year she has been teaching at Gatun, in the Canal Zone, Panama. Miss Bayless is well known among Georgetown people having lived here with her parents. Since then she has had a varied career, serving in many special capacities. At one time she was recording secretary for Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, and was much grieved to learn of the untimely death of the mistress of the White House, to whom she was greatly attached. Upon her return she will visit many of her friends before taking up her work for the coming season.

CUR CITIZEN'S DEMAND

Fully Complied With—A Maysville Resident Furnished It.

There are few items which appear in this paper more important to Maysville people than the statement published below. In the first place, it is from a citizen of Maysville and can be thoroughly relied upon. In the second place, it indisputably proves that Doan's Kidney Pills do their work thoroughly and not temporarily. Read this carefully: Frederick Dresel, 1238 E. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder and annoyance from my kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back which interfered with my duties. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. Since using them I have had no trouble. All I said about Doan's Kidney Pills before, still holds good."

Mr. Dresel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Dresel had—the remedy backed by home testimony, 50c all stores. Nobody ever knew the weed crop to be a failure.

THE HOHENZOLLERN IS DOOMED.

News from the seat of war under the most favorable conditions must be taken with many grains of salt and can never be accepted without reserve. In this war the conditions are most unfavorable. Between the censors in the capitals and the jockeys at the front actual facts find it hard by wireless or grapevine, to slip through to the world outside. All that we actually know is that Germany, in the beginning ready for the fray, and now at her very strongest and best, has much the better of it in the West—that is, in her march on Paris—and, as far as we can gather, a stand-off in the Northeast, whence the Russians still at rather long range menace Berlin.

Obviously the Allies are pursuing the Fabian policy and playing a waiting game. Every hour that they are able to delay the advance of the German is clear gain. Already Paris has had time to prepare for a siege of many months. The Germans cannot afford a siege of many weeks.

Their original plan of campaign contemplated an onward rush west and south overwhelming the French to the end that, without danger in their rear, the Germans could, with the Austrians turn northward and eastward, and meet the Russians with an irresistible force and an impregnable line of defense, the immortal stand of the Belgians arranged this plan. The interposition of the English will put upon its ultimate defeat.

The German Kaiser expected neither. He thought that England's hands were tied by Ireland. He misjudged the resisting power of France. He did not consider Belgium at all. As a consequence his scheme of conquest has lost an entire month. Instead of carrying all before it opportunity has been given Russia to outnumber and England to get there. From now onward each day will weaken the Germans and strengthen the Allies. Germany is stretched to her fullest tension, England, to say nothing about France, has but just begun to fight.

Kitchener, Joffre and French have undoubtedly taken a suggestion, if not a lesson, from the famous Sherman-Johnston campaign in America fifty years ago. Between the 4th of May and the 17th of July, 1861, retiring foot by foot before the Federals, under Sherman, the Confederates under Johnston made the line from Dalton to Atlanta, a distance of a hundred miles, so closely and dangerously that, except for the good generalship of Sherman, the Union arms must have suffered defeat. There are those who believe that, except for the untimely removal of Johnston from the command, Sherman would still have had to fall back on Chattanooga. He had lost in the battles about Resaca and Kennesaw Mountain and thence on ward to Atlanta at least three to Johnston's one, and the fighting quality of the Confederates was as unimpaired at the last as at the first of the seventy days.

Fabius himself in his memorable retreats before Hannibal was not more skillful than Johnston in his masterly retreats before Sherman. Indeed, Johnston and Sherman were so equally matched that the campaign seemed a well played game of chess by two experts. The Confederacy was doomed. Even then, though the rank and file did not realize it, the bottom was dropping out of the tub.

The European situation today is analogous with the conditions reversed. It is now the invader who is doomed. The Allies, slowly retreating before the Germans, have only to hold their morale as the Confederates did, presently to have their overconfident enemy at their mercy. He dare not sit down before Paris relying upon massed assaults and bomb dropping. He must destroy the army in front and enter Paris, and, even then, he will not be safe.

It is but a matter of weeks, perhaps days, before reinforcements will begin to pour in to the Allies. The German front in the West must be weakened to strengthen the Austro-German line in the North and East. Austria is even now proving a broken reed. Turkey will never reach the pivotal points of battle. Holland, Italy and even Switzerland will have to be reckoned with before Germany can dictate peace to Europe on her own terms. In short and in fine the Kaiser "has bit off more than he can chew." The Hohenzollern is doomed.

It seems a destiny. It has been ever thus in human history. When the Nation, or the Man, not willing to let well enough alone, has set forth to hog it all, down he has gone.

That Kaiser Wilhelm of Hohenzollern worked out in his mind a cause of quarrel and a plan of action, and was not inspired solely by devilish ambition, we may readily allow. He is an able, thoughtful man. He saw the rising tide of Social Democracy and viewed it with intelligent apprehension. "I must divert the mind of my people and consolidate my power by achievements in arms," he probably said to himself. "I cannot leave the popular deluge that threatens as a legacy to a Hotspur son who may not be able to meet it," he argued, "and Germany is better organized and equipped for war, her adversaries less so, than is ever likely again to recur." Thus Bonaparte reasoned before the monstrous device themselves. They consider not the unseemly—the unexpected—the chapters of accident—the elements. In the German Kaiser, fatal miscalculation!

The world could not brook a master of Europe in 1814. It can no little brook a master in 1914. The success of German arms would mean ruin to England and France, annihilation to Italy, Denmark, Holland and Belgium. If Switzerland should be left unharmed she would owe it to her mountains and her poverty. None of these results can the world submit to. With them achieved we should not be safe in America. With them achieved civilization would be but an armed camp, and liberty fled to British beasts.

It is unthinkable, inconceivable. The Hohenzollern is doomed. Even if his troops should occupy Paris he is doomed. But, the likelihood is that the Russians will be in Berlin before the Germans get into Paris, with William of Hohenzollern a prisoner of war as was Louis Napoleon, and the people of Prussia, of Hanover, of Bavaria and of Württemberg free to establish whatever national autonomies they please to establish as were the French after Sedan.

TOBACCO CROP

For the Year Improving—Good Maturing Weather Is Needed to Ripen the 1914 Crop.

(Lexington Herald.)

With the 1914 crop of tobacco growing on nicely since the rains of a week ago, and with the cutting and housing season already on in the early planted fields, the question uppermost in the minds of the tobacco growers, dealers, warehousemen and brokers, is, will the war affect the price of Burley tobacco.

The crop now nearing maturity is going to be much better than was expected two weeks ago, yet on the whole it will be considerably short of the crop of last year which was admittedly a short crop. Indications point to a crop of about 100,000,000 pounds, but little tobacco of an export quality. Last year the British Tobacco Company invaded the Lexington market and purchased liberal quantities of cheap tobacco, warringtons and tips at prices ranging from $6 to $8 and occasionally took a few tobaccos ranging as high as $17 a hundred pounds. These tobaccos were exported and the war raging in Europe may have the effect of cutting off this demand.

Unquestionably every soldier killed who was a user of tobacco, will reduce the demand to that extent, but on the whole, Lexington warehousemen and brokers are of the opinion the war will have but little effect on the future price of tobacco.

President Clarence Lelias, of the Burley Tobacco Company, who has been in California for two months, arrived home Wednesday night, and said he had not been in touch with the situation and could not make a statement as to what effect, if any, the war would have on the price of tobacco.

Good Weather Needed.

Thirty days of blue maturing and ripening weather was all that was desired said Mr. Stivers, to put into the hands of farmers one of the best if not the best crop of tobacco grown in the Blue Grass for several years.

There will be some fields of tobacco that will fall short of the average, but the crop on the whole, while short of that of last year, will be one of quality and color and will bring prices that will be highly satisfactory.

DESTROY THE WEEDS.

A law enacted by the Legislature at its last session requires the cutting down of all noxious weeds growing on the borders of public roads during the month of August. August, and a good portion of September, is seedling time for weeds, and they should be cut and destroyed at once. Persons owning lands along public roads should give the above immediate attention. See Chapter 80 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1914. Additional to the public highways presenting a neater and cleaner appearance by the destruction of the weeds that encumber them, it is also conducive to health and prevents the seed from spreading to the nearby pastures and fields used for cultivation.

A HARD WORKING SECRETARY.

(Mt. Olive Tribune.)

Much of the great success attending the Germantown Fair in recent years can be very properly attributed to the energy and interest taken by its efficient and popular secretary, Dan H. Lloyd. He got out among the people and let them know that Germantown had a fair everybody should go and see. Next to printer's ink, nothing beats personal appeal in making any enterprise a success.

UREY WOODSON SUCCEEDS MAYO.

MEDICAL EDUCATION IN THE UNITED STATES.

The total number of medical students in the United States for the year ending June 30, 1914, was 16,502, a decrease of 513 below last year, a decrease of 1,910 below 1912 and a decrease of 11,610 below 1901, when 28,112, the highest number of students, were enrolled. Of the total number of students, 15,438 were in attendance at the non-sectarian (regular) colleges, 704 at the homeopathic and 270 at the eclectic colleges.

OLLIE JAMES INTERESTED IN MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS.

Senator Ollie M. James offers through the Kentucky Literacy Commission, a prize of Fifty Dollars to the teacher who teaches the best moonlight school this year, the Literacy Commission to judge it from the results: number enrolled, average attendance, illiterates taught and general interest. This will be a reward and an honor for some teacher. Let some one in our county start a moonlight school and win it.

WOMAN COULD NOT SIT UP

Now Does Her Own Work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

Ironton, Ohio.—"I am enjoying better health now than I have for twelve years. When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could not sit up. I had female troubles and was very nervous. I used the remedies a year and I can do my work and for the last eight months I have worked for other women, too. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for I know I never would have been as well if I had not taken it and I recommend it to suffering women."

Daughter Helped Also. "I gave it to my daughter when she was thirteen years old. She was in school and was a nervous wreck, and could not sleep nights. Now she looks so healthy that even the doctor speaks of it. You can publish this letter if you like."—Mrs. RENA BOWMAN, 161 S. 10th Street, Ironton, Ohio.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ASHLAND CONVENTIONS

Of the Christian Churches of Kentucky—End—Were Largely Attended

From the statements made in the Ashland papers, Wednesday's sessions were considered the very best part of the entire convention. Special mention is given of the address by Mrs. Josephine Stearns, of Indianapolis, on the "Needs of the Home Office." She having been a missionary in Mexico and she now having traveled extensively in the interest of the C. W. B. M. was able to give a great address.

The State Secretary, Mrs. Louise Loom Campbell made a very favorable and hopeful report of the year's work.

One of the best and most satisfactory years of history; of the aims set before them last year, this society, they have reached 5,000 members; doubled the number of young women's circles; six new women's societies organized; closer cooperation between young people's work and our adult societies; total life memberships, 470,418; mission study classes, 2; mountain scholarships taken, 20; largest number of donations to any mountain schools than ever before; mountain schools at Morehead and Hazlewood; 25 societies on honor roll; 15 on honor roll plus 20 on prospective list that have not yet fully reported; the financial aim has been $27,000; have reached $25,500.00 already and hope to reach the entire amount by September 30th; $1,000 given by Mr. Ernest Dunlap, of Fayette county; entered a new district this year—the 4th; organizing a society at Columbia; 177 organizations; 5,000 members; Kentucky Christian Woman's Board of Mission; entering upon 33rd year of history; the headquarters of the board is at Lexington; Mrs. John Gay is president; Mrs. A. M. Harrison, vice president; Mrs. O. L. Bradley, treasurer; Mrs. Nellie Stucky, recording secretary; Mrs. Louise L. Campbell, Lexington; Rec. Mrs. Mary S. Walden, Danville, superintending of Young People's work; three young women in the state under pledge for missionary service; published a state paper called Quarterly, each quarter—2,500 copies.

The following officers for next year have been selected:

President, Mrs. John Gay, Versailles; Vice President, A. N. Harrison, Lexington; Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. Louise Campbell, Lexington; Rec. Sec'y, Mrs. J. A. Stucky, Lexington; Treasurer, Mrs. I. L. Bradley, Lexington; Supt. of Young People's Work, Mrs. Mary S. Walden, Danville.

The really great speech of the day was given by H. J. Derbick who is now in social settlement work in Indianapolis. The attendance throughout the day was reported to be very good.

BISHOP KILCO

Censures Men Who Took University From Control of Church.

Wilmore, Ky.—The Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, convened for its second business session. President Clark, of Kentucky Wesleyan College, at Winchester, spoke at length on the condition, progress and needs of that institution of the church.

After the address by President Clark the Presiding Bishop, John C. Kilgo, commented at length upon education in connection with the church. The Bishop in the course of his remarks upbraided the men who had taken Vanderbilt University from the control of Southern Methodism, and made that institution, conceived and brought forth by the church, an independent institution. He contended that that system of education is the curse of the twentieth century, and is used as an example the scholarly Germany which, said the Bishop, is as barbaric inspired as it was when Caesar led his legions against the savages of Gaul, because they have left God and conscience out of their teachings.

INCORRIGIBLE MATRON

Wife Only 15 Years Old Sent To School of Reform.

Howling Green, Ky.—Mrs. Mattie Howard Elrod, 15 years old, was tried before County Judge Henry H. Denhardt, charged with being incorrigible and was found guilty. She was sentenced to two years in the School of Reform at Lexington, where she was taken.

In opposing appropriations for improving certain small streams, Senator Burton cited the Kentucky River as one where money had been spent to no purpose.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving women's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

TELL ME.

(By Kathleen Milikin.)

Tell me, dainty lady, what's your name?

Is it Rose, or Theodora,

Is it Gwendolyn, or Flora,

Or is it just by chance, plain Mary Jane?

Tell me pretty maiden, where do you dwell?

Do you live in stately tower,

Or amid enchanted bower,

Or do you live in yonder hidden dell?

Tell me, fairest maiden, what do you do?

Do you sew on dainty seams,

Or imagine fairy dreams,

Or do you gaze in the over-arching blue?

Tell me, sweetest damsel, who you are?

Are you some enchantress fair,

Are you a spirit of the air,

With the mystic power to haunt me from afar?—Review.

Mrs. Dolyns as chairman of her committee read the following resolutions:

Teachers' Institute, Maysville, Ky., 1911: Your committee beg leave to submit and recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

First, we thank Supt. Caplinger and the Maysville Board of Education for the use of their handsome and commodious building for the session of the Institute.

Second, we express our great appreciation of the work of Mrs. Stewart and thank her heartily for the instruction and inspiration that she has given us.

Third, we thank Mr. Croxton for his musical instruction and for the pleasure that we had in his singing.

Fourth, we endorse the present adopted course of study and recommend that it be carefully followed by every rural teacher in the county.

Fifth, we urge every teacher to be prompt and careful in the use of the test questions sent out from the Superintendent's office.

Sixth, we now adopt the health program suggested by our County Superintendent and pledge our support in carrying it out. We suggest that it be published conspicuously in the county papers and that printed copies be posted in every school room.

Seventh, we hope for a more general use of the State Reading Circle course among our teachers.

Eighth, we pledge the attendance as far as possible of a teaching force in the Ninth District Association at Mt. Sterling in November.

Ninth, we heartily commend the work of the Kentucky Educational Association and pledge our attendance in large numbers at all its sessions.

Tenth, (Consolidation.)

Eleventh, we recommend that community centers be established in the various districts with the school as the center as is being done in many places.

Twelfth, we endorse Moonlight Schools, an institution which originated in the Ninth Congressional District in Kentucky, as a practical institution for stamping out Kentucky's illiteracy and elevating the standard of education among the adult population of rural sections.

Thirteenth, we pledge ourselves to establish them in Mason county and to eradicate its illiteracy completely before 1920.

Fourteenth, we greatly appreciate the kind services of the press in reporting the daily proceedings of our institute, and also educational movements in Mason county.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

Men will often trust their daughters with men whom they wouldn't trust with the statement that "These shoes are a mile too big for me."

When a man can get his wife to believe that his business compels him to remain at the office until 3 a. m. one day a week he imagines that he has the world by the tail.

When two women who haven't seen each other for almost an hour meet on the street they kiss and snicker for a while and then turn to see if there are any men around to appreciate what they are missing.

Before he gets her he swears by her. After he gets her he swears at her.

Some of the how-legged girls take chances with the transparent skirt, but why is it that you never see one wearing a bathing suit?

Class will always tell. You can put a one-hundred-dollar hat on a ten-cent woman, and she will continue to look like a ten-cent woman.

HEAR THE OTHER SIDE

Hon. Jacob E. Meeker
of St. Louis, Mo., will speak at the Court House in Maysville on Saturday afternoon, September 12th, at 1:30 p. m. on

"The Threat of Prohibition"

Mr. Meeker was recently nominated for Congress in the Tenth Missouri District by a majority of 10,600, which shows his popularity among those who know him.

You have heard much about prohibition from the prohibition side; come and hear the other side.

Mr. Meeker is an entertaining talker, who knows his subject and will tell you many things that are true and will interest you, no matter whether you are "wet" or "dry".

Ladies especially invited, but it is desired that persons in all walks of life, and of every race, creed and color, will come and hear Mr. Meeker discuss the subject which has been so much discussed in the past two weeks.

Mr. Meeker backs his assertion by authoritative facts. Let everybody come and hear him.

Admission free, no collection.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Buyers to Share in Profits
Lower Prices on Ford Cars
Effective from August 1st, 1914, to August 1st, 1915, and guaranteed against any reduction in that time:

Touring Car	$490
Runabout	440
Truck	690

V. O. B. Detroit, all cars fully equipped.

Further, we will be able to obtain the maximum efficiency in our factory production, and the minimum cost in our purchasing and sales departments if we can reach an output of 300,000 cars between the above dates.

And should we reach this production, we agree to pay the buyer's share from $40 to $60 per car (on or about August 1, 1916) to every retail buyer who purchases a new Ford car between August 1st, 1914, and August 1st, 1915.

For further particulars regarding these low prices and profit-sharing plan, see the
